

A Child's Place in Time and Space

Grade One

- 1.1 Students describe the rights and individual responsibilities of citizenship.
- 1.2 Students compare and contrast the absolute and relative locations of places and people and describe the physical and/or human characteristics of places.
- 1.3 Students know and understand the symbols, icons, and traditions of the United States that provide continuity and a sense of community across time.
- 1.4 Students compare and contrast everyday life in different times and places around the world and recognize that some aspects of people, places, and things change over time while others stay the same.
- 1.5 Students describe the human characteristics of familiar places and the varied backgrounds of American citizens and residents in those places.
- 1.6 Students understand basic economic concepts and the role of individual choice in a free-market economy.

1.1

A Child's Place in Time and Space

Students describe the rights and individual responsibilities of citizenship.

1.2

A Child's Place in Time and Space

Students compare and contrast the absolute and relative locations of places and people and describe the physical and/or human characteristics of places.

1.3

A Child's Place in Time and Space

Students know and understand the symbols, icons, and traditions of the United States that provide continuity and a sense of community across time.

1.4

A Child's Place in Time and Space

Students compare and contrast everyday life in different times and places around the world and recognize that some aspects of people, places, and things change over time while others stay the same.

1.5

A Child's Place in Time and Space

Students describe the human characteristics of familiar places and the varied backgrounds of American citizens and residents in those places.

1.6

A Child's Place in Time and Space

Students understand basic economic concepts and the role of individual choice in a free-market economy.

1.1

A Child's Place in
Time and Space

Students describe the rights and individual responsibilities of citizenship.

1.2

A Child's Place in
Time and Space

Students compare and contrast the absolute and relative locations of places and people and describe the physical and/or human characteristics of places.

1.3

A Child's Place in
Time and Space

Students know and understand the symbols, icons, and traditions of the United States that provide continuity and a sense of community across time.

1.4

A Child's Place in
Time and Space

Students compare and contrast everyday life in different times and places around the world and recognize that some aspects of people, places, and things change over time while others stay the same.

1.5

*A Child's Place in
Time and Space*

Students describe the human characteristics of familiar places and the varied backgrounds of American citizens and residents in those places.

1.6

*A Child's Place in
Time and Space*

Students understand basic economic concepts and the role of individual choice in a free-market economy.